The University Support Staff Senate

The USS Senate represents the interests, values and insights of all University Support Staff and communicates with the University of Kansas administration, the Kansas legislature and others on behalf of the University Support Staff.

In recognition of the significant functions, knowledge, skills, and talents of the KU Support Staff, the USS Senate helps University Support Staff members to become a more integral part of the university community. All University Support Staff are eligible and encouraged to serve on one of the USS Senate standing committees. The USS Senate recommends support staff representatives to serve on many university-wide committees, such as the Judicial Board, Parking Commission and International Affairs.

“In the midst of all our toil and celebration, we can easily lose sight of the engine that makes this University function. This engine is not always visible yet without it none of us would have the opportunity to attend this fine academic institution. This engine includes the hundreds of KU employees that perform custodial duties, cook meals, plow the snow, beautify the landscape, drive buses, deliver mail and provide computer services... I would like to personally and publicly thank each employee of KU for their hard work and sacrifice that has enabled me to study at a fine institution.”

Andrew Farina Warren, UDK, 10 May 2004

maintain office records

and much, much more...

“A plea went out on radio and TV for all FO employees to report to KU. They did. By late morning, 150 to 200 landscapers, plumbers, electricians, carpenters, housekeepers and others were at work clearing streets and sidewalks and hauling away debris. They did so until dark, got up the next day and did it again. The transformation of the campus in 48 hours was stunning. Who hasn't remarked what an incredible job the FO Staff did?”

Robert Hemenway, KU Chancellor
